

Features and benefits

NCFE Level 5 Diploma in Principles of Management and Leadership (601/8032/8)

Minimum entry age: 18

Features	Benefits to the centre	Benefits to the learner	Benefits to the employer
This qualification is eligible for SFA funding – see https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/qualificationssimplified-funding-rates-2015-to-2016 for the most up to date information	We've got funding confirmed for 19+ learners	Increased accessibility	Increased accessibility
This is a knowledge-based qualification	You won't need any special resources to deliver this qualification	This qualification allows you to apply your knowledge to the national standard required by employers, and could present you with new opportunities to progress within your area of work	Successful completion of this qualification demonstrates your employees knowledge
This qualification forms the knowledge element of the Higher Level Apprenticeship in Leadership and Management.	There's no need for learners to repeat their knowledge-based learning	There's no need for you to repeat your knowledge-based learning	Increased accessibility

Features	Benefits to the centre	Benefits to the learner	Benefits to the employer
This qualification is assessed by a portfolio of evidence	Using a portfolio approach allows you flexibility in coming up with your own assessment methods based on the preferences of your learners, such as audio, visual and written evidence. There's less demand on you to organise tests and this qualification requires no additional resources over and above the norm of blended learning and delivery	This qualification caters for different learning styles and is favoured by learners who find test conditions stressful or undesirable	Being assessed via portfolio, this qualification limits the disruption to work which can be caused by tests and observations