About this qualification

The NCFE Level 3 Award in Education and Training is an introductory teaching qualification. Depending upon the optional units chosen, a learner will either need to take part in microteaching (Unit 02) or teaching practice in the work environment (Unit 03 and Unit 04). Therefore, it may be undertaken by individuals who are not in a teaching role if the microteaching option is taken.

This qualification aims to meet the needs of a range of trainee teachers, such as:

- individuals not currently in a teaching or training role
- individuals who are currently teaching and training (including those who have just begun teaching and training)
- individuals currently working as Assessors who wish to achieve a qualification that provides an introduction to teaching.

Qualification structure

To be awarded the NCFE Level 3 Award in Education and Training, learners are required to successfully complete one mandatory unit and a minimum of two optional units.

Learners must achieve a minimum of 12 credits: 3 credits from the mandatory unit in Group A, 6 credits from Group B and 3 credits from Group C.

Mandatory units

Unit 01 Understanding roles, responsibilities and relationships in education and training.
--

Optional units

Optional units available for this qualification cover areas such as understanding and using inclusive teaching and learning approaches and assessment in education and training as well as facilitate learning and development for individuals or in groups (please refer to the Qualification Specification for more information).

Assessment

The NCFE Level 3 Award in Education and Training is a competence-based qualification which is internally assessed through a portfolio of evidence, which is externally quality assured.

Progression opportunities

The objectives of this qualification are to:

- prepare learners for employment
- support learners to progress to a teaching role within the workplace.

Learners who achieve this qualification could progress to:

- NCFE Level 4 Certificate in Education and Training
- NCFE Level 5 Diploma in Education and Training
