About this qualification

This qualification is designed to increase learners' awareness and understanding of behaviour that challenges and its effects. By completing the qualification, learners will develop in-depth knowledge of behaviour that challenges, which could support progression onto other appropriate qualifications and into relevant employment in the health and social care sector. This qualification would be valuable to learners already working in education and health and social care settings.

There are no specific recommended prior learning requirements for this qualification. However, learners may find it helpful if they've already achieved a Level 1 qualification in healthcare, social care, childcare or supporting learning.

Qualification structure

To achieve this qualification learners must successfully complete 4 mandatory units.

Mandatory units

Understand behaviour that challenges
Understand how to support positive behaviour
Understand the importance of effective communication and the management of behaviour that challenges
Understand the role of reflection and support for those involved in incidents of behaviour that challenges

Assessment

All units will be individually internally assessed using a range of methods which could include written assignments or tasks.
